

Northeast Ohio School of Ministry (NEOSOM)
Fall Term 2020

Course Schedule

Old Testament 3A-B: The Theology of the Old Testament

Part A Fee $100

Ordination Track Course

Description:

Once we have a basic grasp of the vast body of material Christians know as the Old (or First) Testament, then what do we do? Scripture is fundamentally theological, and this course will introduce students to the discipline of Old Testament Theology, examining the magnum opus of the UCC's most prolific and renowned biblical scholar, Walter Brueggemann. This advanced double course, spanning the fall and winter terms (for a total of 16 online sessions), will be devoted to reading Prof. Brueggemann's Theology of the Old Testament as an example and inspiration for our own theological engagement with the largest portion of the Christian Bible.

Instructor: Gene McAfee

Dates: Wednesdays, Oct. 7 - 28, Nov. 4 - 25, 2020 (Part A); Jan. 6 - 27, Feb. 3 - 24, 2021 (Part B)

Time: 6:30 - 8:40 p.m.

Text: Brueggemann, Walter. Theology of the Old Testament (Fortress, 1997, 2012)

Prerequisite: Old Testament 1 and 2

All courses are taught online via Zoom and require a minimum of six students. Tuition is $100 per course. For questions or for more information, please contact Gene McAfee, Dean, at deanofschools@livingwaterone.org.
