

DISCIPLESHIP IN UNEXPECTED WAYS

Financial Report

This ministry has been operating informally for 3 years. I recently filed application for it to become a 501©3 in California but it is not formalized yet. We do have a Federal EIN #85-1520117.

To date, all ministry expense needs have been funded by me personally. We have typically produced advertising materials and Christian radio & print ads to promote our tours. I have provided books, Christian literature, food for meetings, and travel accessories but most of our ministry is based in spending time talking about outreach ideas and planning our trips. We do not receipt income, have not taken any donations, and have minimal expense.

As we develop new ministries, we may take donations to help cover expenses (rather than me funding it all personally) but I don't expect our income or expenses to grow much. I don't want this to look like a "business" but continue on as a faith & people-based means of sharing the Gospel in new ways.
